THE ROYAL INSTITUTION OF NAVAL ARCHITECTS

ASSOCIATES

Founded in 1860, today the Royal Institution of Naval Architects is an internationally renowned professional institution whose members are involved at all levels in the design, construction, and maintenance of marine vessels and structures. Members of the Institution are widely represented in industry, universities and colleges, and maritime organisations world-wide.

The Royal Institution of Naval Architects enjoys an outstanding reputation for the quality and range of its publications, including its technical journals, and conference proceedings, covering all aspects of the maritime industry. The Institution also organises an extensive and successful programme of international conferences, seminars and training courses covering a broad range of experience and opinion on research, development and operation in all technical aspects of the maritime industry.

Those who are involved or interested in the design, construction and maintenance of marine vessels and structures in a non technical capacity may apply to become Associates and enjoy the following benefits and services:

- Up to date information on technical developments in the maritime industry and Institution events through the Institution's journals and eNewsletters.
- Free copies of all the Institution's leading technical journals - The Naval Architect, Warship Technology, and Offshore Marine Technology. Free copies of technical papers published in the International Journal of Maritime Technology, the International Journal of Small Craft Technology, the International Journal of Marine Design and Conference Proceedings. Reduced rates on all other publications.
- Reduced rates on Institution conferences, seminars and training courses
- Access to library and meeting room facilities.
- Entry in the Marine Services Directory
- Opportunity to meet and exchange views with other maritime industry professionals at local Branches, conferences and online technical forums.
