THE ROYAL INSTITUTION OF NAVAL ARCHITECTS

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Founded in 1860, today the Royal Institution of Naval Architects is an internationally renowned professional institution whose members are involved at all levels in the design, construction, and maintenance of marine vessels and structures. Members of the Institution are widely represented in industry, universities and colleges, and maritime organisations world-wide.

The Royal Institution of Naval Architects enjoys an outstanding reputation for the quality and range of its publications, including its technical journals, and conference proceedings, covering all aspects of the maritime industry. The Institution also organises an extensive and successful programme of international conferences, seminars and training courses covering a broad range of experience and opinion on research, development and operation in all technical aspects of the maritime industry.

Those who are involved in the design, construction and maintenance of marine vessels and structures in a technical capacity, and who are actively working to achieve the standard of professional competence required for full membership of the Institution may apply to become Associate Members and enjoy the following benefits and services:

- Demonstration to potential employers of early commitment to obtaining a professional qualification which is internationally recognised as reflecting the achievement of the highest standards of professional competence and integrity.
- Advice and assistance on further education, training and professional development.
- Free copies of all the Institution's leading technical journals - The Naval Architect, Warship Technology, and Offshore Marine Technology. Free copies of technical papers published in the International Journal of Maritime Technology, the International Journal of Small Craft Technology, the International Journal of Marine Design and Conference Proceedings. Reduced rates on all other publications.
- Reduced rates on Institution conferences, seminars and training courses
- Scholarships, Awards, Prizes and sponsored places at Institution conferences, seminars and training courses (if still in full-time education).
- Access to library and meeting room facilities.
- Opportunity to meet and exchange views with other maritime industry professionals at local Branches, conferences and online technical forums.

To become an Associate Member of the Royal Institution of Naval Architects, complete and forward the Application Form overleaf to hq@rina.org.uk
